Greensboro-Charlotte.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 10.—Greensbord furned the tables on Charlotte to-day, shutting cut the water drinkers entirely by score of to 0. The story of defeat reasts in the rather wild work of Gibbs, who was in the box for wild work of Gibbs, who was in the box for the locals. He had sood support and the locals, so far as technical points go, put up the best exhibition of base-ball.
Charters, who did the twiring for the visitors, pichesd a good time. President Brandt, of the Virginia-Carolina Leasus, unspired the contest and did it to the taste of ball players and spectators alike.
